TASTING NOTES:

The cool summer preceding the 2002 vintage produced conditions ideal for flavour development and the ripening of tannins particularly with Cabernet.

This wine exhibits fragrant blackberry and blueberry characters complexed with flavours of dried mint and subtle liquorice.

The palate is rich in flavour yet elegant, with fine tannins and subtle oak from 18 months maturation in French and American barrels.

Although drinking well now, this wine will reward cellaring for between 5-7 years.
